At the National Capital the administration is maintaining a tarriff commission carefully chosen to represent an anti-protection policy. The commission has an extensive suite of offices, has a corps of experts, clerks and stenographers, and is not accomplishing anything so far as the public knows. But regardless of its high-paid commissioners, its offices and its experts, it will not discover or develop any fact or theory bearing upon the tariff which tends in the least to minimize the force of the simple statement made some sixty years ago by a country lawyer in Illinois—one Abraham Lincoln—who said that if we buy goods made in Europe we have the goods and Europe has the money, while if we buy goods made in the United States, we have both the goods and the money. A free trade tariff commission couldn't spend a million dollars in any investigation that would discredit that plain declaration of the end to be accomplished by a protective tariff.

Political Gossip.

The "Willie" and "Nicky" slush reminds one of fatuous Me-phistopheles and a feeble Faust.

Whatever Roosevelt says always has the punch in it. "This is no 'dollar war' or 'potato war,'" he says, "but a 'fighter's war.'" This thing of winning wars by slogans and side issues, while it has the charm of incon-sequence, is too much like knocking out an athlete by giving him a quiet slap on the wrist.

Oklahoma farmers are said to be feeding $1.95 wheat to the hogs and selling $2.25 corn to the buyers.

Any Democrat who is not connected with a good paying job now will never be regarded by his descendants as having been right bright.

"We have heard a great deal from demagogues," says the terrible Teddy, "about this being a rich man's war. It's a lie and they know it. It's a decent man's war." All of which is true.

Senator La Follette says he would die for democracy. Agreed.
Boy, page the undertaker.

Pacifism is simply the mud that flies from the turning wheel of patriotism. No wheel ever turned slower by losing it.

"The decline of wool growing in Ohio is the only discouraging phase of Buckeye agriculture." So says the Democratic State Auditor. As usual, under a free trade tariff, the Democratic party finds it difficult to look a sheep in the face.

Brief Items.

If the water ordinarily used in cooking cereals is replaced with skim milk, the cooked food will contain about four times as much protein, a valuable body-building material, and will be just as good a food in other respects.

The housekeeper should be sure that her family has every day some food from each of the five principal groups, namely, fats, sugars, cereals, fruits and vegetables, and meat, milk, cheese, eggs, or legumes.

Use the poisoned bran bait to control grasshoppers.

In the humid sections distribute the poisoned-bran bait for grass hoppers early in the morning.

Four parts of potatoes are equal to about one part of cereal in a mixed diet.

DRY OR WET

On November 6 the voters of Ohio will be called upon to vote on a Proposed Amendment to the Constitution which is to read:

"The sale and manufacture for sale of intoxicating liquors, as a beverage are hereby prohibited. The General Assembly shall enact laws to make this provision effective. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the manufacture of such liquors for medical, industrial, scientific, sacramental and other non-beverage purposes."

Ohio voted on a like amendment in 1915 and it lost by 55,408.
The wet majority in Hamilton county alone was 68,444. So outside of Hamilton county the state went dry by 13,036.

The U. S. SUPREME COURT. In the case of Crowley versus Christen, in Report 137 and page 86, held: "There is no inherent right in a citizen to sell intoxicating liquors by retail.
It is not a privilege of a citizen of the state or a citizen of the United States." So, before a person can open a saloon he must get a license from the United States and from his own state.

The U. S. SUPREME COURT last January held, in the Webb Kenyon Decision, that a state has a right to enact a law prohibiting the shipping of beverages from other states into the state so prohibiting.

The U. S. COURTS have held that four things are not subject to interstate commerce and a state has a right to enact a law prohibiting other states shipping such articles into it. The four being cotton infected with plague, lottery tickets, rotten meat and booze.

Early in this year Congress passed, and the President signed, the ANTI LIQUOR ADVERTISING LAW forbidding the use of the mails, in dry territory, to any newspaper or publication that contained liquor advertisements and the soliciting of orders for beverages in any manner through the mails in dry territory.

BONE DRY

This law, passed by Congress and signed by the President, reads:

"Whosoever shall order, purchase or cause liquors to be transported in interstate commerce, except for scientific, sacramental, medicinal and mechanical purposes, into any state or territory, the laws of which state or territory prohibit the manufacture or sale therein of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes, shall be punished as aforesaid."

Under the provisions of the Amendment to be voted on in Ohio, on November 6, Ohio will be BONE DRY on and after February 1, 1919, and the U. S. will not permit any bootlegging, speakeasies, or other sales of liquor as a beverage. Two years ago the liquor traffic said prohibition could not be enforced. Now they admit it will stop bootlegging, speakeasies and other unlawful sales of liquors.

Recently Congress passed a law, and same was signed by the President, that stopped the use of food articles in the manufacture of whisky during the war. But there is enough whisky on hand to last longer than the war will last. So the real and only thing gained by this law is the saving of food products, during the war, from being used in the making of whisky.

GLADSTONE SAYS: "It is the duty of the government to make it easy for the people to do right; and difficult to do wrong." That is why it is your duty to vote dry and make it easier to do right.

QUESTIONS TO ANSWER

What has the saloon done for you? What has the saloon done to you? What good has the saloon done any community? What misery, crime, poverty and disturbances has the saloon caused? Thoughtfully think over these questions.

He never lived who could truthfully say that the saloon helped him to be a better man. Thousands say it has ruined them. You say you can "drink or let it alone." Will your boy or girl be able to "let it alone?" Think that over, if you care for them.

70,000 drunkards die annually. 70,000 boys must annually, commence the road to a drunkard's grave. During each twelve months the liquor traffic takes a mortgage on 70,000 cradles that is foreclosed by a drunkard's grave. Is your child mortgaged to the liquor traffic? If so, vote dry and cancel the mortgage. A saloon cannot run along without boys.

FATHERS AND MOTHERS, the liquor traffic is selfishly and unpatriotically appealing for votes on the ground that it (not its customers) pay taxes. Would you have your child made a drunkard for all the taxes the customers of saloons pay in Ohio? We will later show you how false is their claim about taxes.

As long as booze is manufactured you will have the temptation to boys to drink; you will have the cost of the crime, insanity and poverty it causes to take care of the taxes you pay. Are you willing to pay the taxes collected of you to take care of the criminals, criminal courts, riots, the insane and for the poor fund directly caused by booze?

As long as you have saloons you will have a greater necessity for police, criminal and police courts, jails, penitentiaries, poor houses, children's homes, hospitals, and, of course, GREATER TAXES to pay the bills. The Police Dept. of Greenville reports 17 arrests in the city for Sept., 11 of which were for drunkenness.

The OHIO SUPREME COURT says: "The liquor traffic is the acknowledged source of much of the crime and pauperism of the state."

The U. S. SUPREME COURT says: "The statistics of every state show a greater amount of crime and misery attributed to the use of ardent spirits obtained in these retail liquor saloons than any other sources."

BRYAN says: "That the saloon is the first place a policeman looks for criminals, and the last place where he expects to find virtue."

Booze is forbidden in the Army and Navy. Why have it in Ohio? The Government has closed nearly all the saloons in Chillicothe because they sold booze to soldiers. The Government knows that booze makes a poor soldier. If booze makes a poor soldier, it will make a poor citizen. Close the saloon to citizens as well as to soldiers. The Government was not thinking about revenue when it stopped the sale of booze to soldiers. shall Ohio boys give their lives for the flag may still float over the saloon, which nobody has a word of defense for, which nobody says a good thing about, which does nobody any good, which is the source of crime and disturbance in every community where located?

THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC SAYS:

Bring me the industrious, the respectable, the sober, and I will return them to you drunkards, paupers and beggars.

Bring me the child and I will dash to earth the dearest hopes of the father and mother.

Bring me the father and mother and I will plant discord between them and a curse and a reproach to their children.

Bring me the young man and I will ruin his character, destroy his health, shorten his life and blot out the highest and purest hopes of youth.

Bring me the young woman and I will destroy her virtue and return her to you a blighted and withered thing, and an instrument to lead others to destruction.

Bring me the mechanic and laborer, and his own money, the hard earned money of toil, and he shall be made to plant poverty, vice and ignorance in his once happy home.

Bring me the politician and I will pervert justice, break up the integrity of our civil institutions, and the name of law shall become a hissing and a by-word in the streets.
